MULTI - DAY TOURS TERMS AND CONDITIONS

GENERAL INFORMATION

PASSPORT & VISA INFORMATION FOR USA AND CANADIAN CITIZENS

Participants are solely responsible for ensuring their passports are up to date, do not expire for at least 6 months after the trip return date (a requirement to enter many countries), have two completely blank pages (for some countries) and have all necessary visas. We recommend that you keep a copy of your scanned passport (photograph page) on your email while traveling. For up to date visa requirements US citizens should visit www.travel.state.gov and Canadian citizens should visit www.travel.gc.ca/travelling/documents. Citizens of other countries should check with the relevant embassy in their own country. Any failure of a participant to have proper visas and/or passport will likely result in the participant not being able to leave the country or enter a destination, and no refund will be available in any such case.

Alma’s LDS Tours will not be held responsible for any miscarriage, stolen or left behind passport. In case of miscarriage a or leaving behind a passport or visa at a previous location during the trip, we will do whatever is in our possibilities to help, as long as these efforts do not delay the current operation of the excursion and all participants in the group are supportive to such decision. However, retrieving assistance on behalf of the passports issuer or seeking help to retrieve such passport or visa, is the responsibility of the client and may be accountable for covering any charges or expenses incurred during the process.
TRAVEL INSURANCE

It is advisable to take out your travel insurance at the time of booking your trip, since coverage will begin for pre-departure cancelation from the policy issue date. This will, therefore, provide coverage should you have to cancel your trip for an insured (covered) reason. We strongly recommend that you and all members of your party are adequately insured, protecting against unforeseen circumstances that could otherwise spoil your travels. Coverage should include medical expenses and repatriation in the event of accident or illness. Also, we also strongly recommend that you have coverage for personal belongings, delay at your outward or homeward point of departure, personal liability, overseas legal expenses, and cancelation. If you are undertaking any sports or adventurous activities, including trekking, on your trip you should also make sure that your policy covers these. Please also ensure you read the policy conditions and exclusions.

WORLD TRAVEL AND CULTURAL DIFFERENCES

Many of our destinations are in the developing world where attitudes, infrastructure, priorities, lifestyles, and cultures are very different from our own. This is often the very reason to visit the destination, but certain aspects may be overwhelming. We always advise that the first thing you should pack is your sense of humor. This can prove invaluable when traveling over rougher roads, waiting for a delayed aircraft and communicating with hotel staff whose first language is not English.

SECURITY

Opportunist crime such as bag-snatching and pick-pocketing is, unfortunately, a fact of life in many destinations. Use your common sense when walking around, make use of hotel safes where available, and leave all but essential valuables at home.
HEALTH

We recommend that you see your physician before booking your trip and before traveling to make sure that you have taken all necessary health precautions. Some vaccinations require more than one visit with a period of weeks between injections. You should visit your physician at least 6 weeks before departure. For up to date medical advice we strongly recommend that you visit the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) travelers’ health page: www.cdc.gov/travel. Canadian citizens might also want to check www.bccdc.ca

PRE-EXISTING MEDICAL CONDITIONS & PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

The nature of many of the destinations we travel to means that in some cases they may be unsuitable for those who use a wheelchair or have a lack of mobility. It is essential that you advise us before booking if you do have any disability or pre-existing medical condition which may affect your trip. Or, if you have any special requirements as a result of any disability or medical status (including any which affect the booking process); so that we can assist you in considering the suitability of the arrangements and/or in making the booking. Full details must be confirmed in writing at the time of booking and whenever any change in the condition or disability occurs. Generally, on all our escorted group tours the guides and tour leaders are, unfortunately, unable to offer additional assistance to passengers with limited mobility and all such assistance will need to be provided by whoever the passenger is traveling with. Only in some instances, we may request that you provide a letter from your doctor confirming your fitness to travel.

SPECIAL DIETARY REQUIREMENTS

Special diets should be requested on the Alma’s LDS Tours booking form located on our website during the booking process; however, it may NOT be possible for individual diets to be catered to in some of the destinations we feature. We will advise the hotels of your request but we cannot guarantee their availability.

PAYMENTS

OUR CONTRACT

All bookings are made with Alma's LDS Tours LLC. By booking a trip with us, you are deemed to have agreed to these Booking Conditions (which constitutes the entire agreement between you and us), and your booking will be accepted by us on this basis. The services to be provided are those referred to in your booking confirmation.

PAYING FOR YOUR TRIP

The prices for joining a Shared Group are displayed on our website. To request a Private tour instead, you may ask for a quote on our website by filling out our booking form. To secure the clients participation on any tour whether it is Shared or Private, we require payment in full or a deposit. We cannot confirm any unpaid reservations. Once payment has been received, a booking confirmation email will be sent to the customer attached with a pdf document that includes our terms and conditions and refund policy.

Upon request, Alma's LDS Tours may offer the option to the customer to pay a deposit equivalent to 30% of the tour cost to secure participation and availability. The deposit is part payment for your trip. The balance or remainder of the payment is due 45 days prior to the scheduled tour departure.

The deposit and all such additional payments are non-refundable unless we cancel your trip. The balance must be paid not later than the date specified on your confirmation invoice. Please note if we do not receive all payments due (including any surcharge where applicable) in full and on time, we are entitled to assume that you wish to cancel your booking. In this case, we will be entitled to keep all amounts paid or due at that date. If we do not cancel immediately because you still have promised to make payment, you still must pay the cancellation charges shown below based on the date we treat your booking as canceled. Full payment is required at the time of booking for all bookings made after balance due date as above.

On occasions, we may be asked by suppliers to make payment to them earlier than normal. Such requests may, for example, be made to secure accommodation and other services during periods of peak demand. Failure to comply with these requests may result in the loss of confirmed arrangements. Where this situation arises, we reserve the right to ask you to make payment of the requested sum within a certain period and prior to balance due date. We will, of course, endeavor to avoid doing so if we can. Any such early payment will be nonrefundable.

ACCEPTANCE OF BOOKING AND FINAL PAYMENTS

If we accept your booking, we will issue a booking confirmation. A contract will exist between us from the date we issue the booking confirmation, or if you book within 30 days of departure, the contract will exist when we accept your payment. Please refer to your booking confirmation for details regarding final payments. Payment of the balance of the trip price is due 45 days before the departure date. If this balance is not paid on or before the due date, we reserve the right to treat your booking as canceled.

PRICES AND SURCHARGES

Our trip prices are subject to variable and seasonal pricing, both of which are standard practice within the travel industry. This means our trip prices may vary at any time in accordance with demand, market conditions, and availability. It is likely that different passengers on the same trip have been charged different prices. Your best option if you like the price you see is to book at that time. Any reduced pricing or discounts that may become available after you have paid your deposit will not apply. If you wish to cancel your booking to take advantage of a lower price, full cancellation conditions apply. The most up to date pricing is available on our website. We reserve the right to impose surcharges up to 56 days before departure due to unfavorable changes in exchange rates, increases in airfares or other transportation costs, increases in local operator costs, taxes, or if government action should require us to do so. In such instances, we will be responsible for any amount up to 2% of the trip price, and you will be accountable for the balance. If any surcharge increases by more than 10% of the trip price you may cancel the booking within 14 days of notification of the surcharge and obtain a full refund. Please note that a surcharge may apply to all purchases made by credit card.

CANCELLATION AND REFUND POLICY

IF YOU CANCEL YOUR TRIP

If you have to cancel the entire booking once it has been confirmed by us, written notification must be sent to us by certified mail or by email. As proof of receipt by email of your notification to cancel you must receive and retain written acknowledgment from Alma’s LDS Tours. Charges will be applied from the date your letter or email is received, according to the scale below. The charges are applied as a percentage of the total trip cost excluding any amendment charges and any amounts paid in addition to the deposit at the time of booking or before balance due date.

TRAVEL ADVISORIES/WARNINGS AND YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

The US Department of State has issued Travel Warnings/Advisories to Mexico and several other countries throughout Latin America due to crime or merely for political reasons for over 30 years. This is a common practice conducted by the US government as a precaution for their citizens and may occur intermittently. However, it is well-documented that tourist destinations typically stay away from harm.

It is the responsibility of the traveler to become informed about the most current travel information, advisories and warnings by referring both to the U.S. State Department’s travel website at www.travel.state.gov/ or by phone at 1-888-407-4747 and by accessing the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) website at https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices. In the event of an active State Department Travel Warning against travel to a specific location on your itinerary, Alma’s LDS Tours will reroute your trip to avoid that particular locale only if necessary. If it cannot be done and if the traveler still chooses to travel to the locale of a warning, the traveler assumes all risk of personal injury, death or property damage that may arise out of or which relates to the type of events warned against.

If requested, a FULL REFUND may apply only if your cancellation notice is provided within the proper timetable established in our refund policy; otherwise, fees and penalties may apply (Please refer to our refund policy for more details. I hereby accept and assume full responsibility for any and all risks of illness, injury or death and of the negligence of Alma’s LDS Tours LLC. or of any third parties.
TRAVEL ADVISORIES/WARNINGS AND YOUR RESPONSIBILITY

It is the responsibility of the traveler to become informed about the most current travel information, advisories and warnings by referring both to the U.S. State Department’s travel website at www.travel.state.gov/ or by phone at 1-888-407-4747 and by accessing the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) website at https://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/notices. In the event of an active State Department Travel Warning against travel to a specific location on your itinerary, Alma’s LDS Tours will reroute your trip to avoid that specific locale. If it cannot do so and if the traveler still chooses to travel to the locale of a warning, the traveler assumes all risk of personal injury, death or property damage that may arise out of or which relates to the type of events warned against.

COMPLAINTS

Should you have any complaints about an aspect of your trip arrangements when traveling, you must inform the local representative or supplier involved immediately. Most problems can easily be dealt with on the spot. Please note if you do not report a problem or complaint which, if it had been reported at the time it occurred could have been resolved there and then, we cannot accept any liability in respect of that problem or complaint. It is sensible to expect a client traveling in the developing world to be reasonably resourceful if things go wrong. If you need urgently to speak with an Alma’s LDS Tours LLC representative outside of office hours you are able to contact us on our 24-hour emergency telephone service which is (801) 415-5136. The number will be found in the Important Information section of your Travel Organizer. In the unlikely event that an acceptable solution cannot be found, you should then write to us within 28 days of your return with full details of your complaint.
